

DIAL-A-PRAYER

NON-DENOMINATIONAL

FA 8-3903

COURTESY OF

HALVERSON-LEAVELL MORTUARY - TORRANCE

Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone DA 5-1515.

'Twelfth Night' Opening Scheduled for Tomorrow

El Camino College's theatre arts department will present the Shakespearean comedy "Twelfth Night."

The show will open in the college's campus theatre at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow and will be on the boards Saturday, and April 8 and 9.

Set in England, the comedy is based on the feasts and masqued balls during the 12 days of Christmas.

Original music has been scored and composed by members of Dr. Robert Haag's composition class. Sets were designed by Leslie Thomas.

Jenny Lynn Rumans plays Viola; Ronald Calkins will portray Malvolio; Ann Carver will enact the role of Olivia.

K. Lype O'Dell will play Sir Toby Belch; and Rex Day is cast as Sir Andrew Aguecheek.

Other principals are Midge Kohlman, as Marisa; Ed Buchanan as Orsino; Clifton Potts as Sebastian; Norman Fordyce as Fabian; and Eric Morgan as Feste.

"Twelfth Night" was written in 1601, the same period which produced "Hamlet," "Much Ado About Nothing," and "As You Like It."

Tickets may be obtained at the box office of the Campus Theatre.

ELEMENTARY ATTIRE — Patty Thompson (left), Elaine Gomez, Carol Foss and Patty Turner, pupils at Walteria School, model student styles for spring at recent class show.

Harbor Students to Attend Parley on Government

Five Harbor College students and two faculty advisers will attend the 29th semiannual California Junior College Student Government Association conference in San Diego today through Saturday.

Student-body officers Don Ahern, Kathleen McNeice, Barbara Hummel, Jon Reede, and Willie Capps, accompanied by advisers Chrystal Murphey and J. Reyburn Hatfield, dean of student activities, will represent Harbor at the convention. More than 350 student delegates from 68 California junior colleges will attend.

The host college will be San Diego Junior, assisted by Ocean-side-Carlsbad, Palomar, Imperial Valley, and Palo Verde colleges.

Purpose of the meeting is to consider on the state level problems common to all member colleges and to pool information relating to student government.

Transition Topic of Educators

Articulation—the methods used to smooth the transition between elementary and high school—will be the topic of discussion at the educational advisory committee meeting at the Torrance Masonic Lodge Monday.

Dr. Bruce Wagner, curriculum consultant will head a panel of Torrance's three high-school principals, Dr. Carl Ahee, Torrance; Dale Harter, North; and John Lucas, South.

Assistant Superintendent S. R. Waldrip will give a school construction report.

A Latin Quintet, Al Dubiski, Vic Grijalva, Carl Jordan, Bill Ladd, and John Mawborn, South-High students will furnish music. Reservations should be made tomorrow.

Mrs. Dean Seated by Hi Neighbors

Mrs. Robert Dean was seated as president of the Torrance Hi Neighbor Club at a recent installation dinner at the Thunderbird Hotel.

Taking office with Mrs. Dean were Mmes. Hal Bloom, vice president; Louis Ambrosio, secretary; Jans Huerta, treasurer; Alton Nigh, public relations; and Richard Fleming, sunshine chairman.

Guests of honor at the event were members' husbands.

RE-ELECT
COUNCILMAN
"NICK"
DRALE

For His Fourth Term
APRIL 12, 1960

HIS VOTING PROGRAM IS A MATTER OF PUBLIC RECORD

- Resident of Torrance for 26 years
- Mayor for one year
- Councilman for 11 years
- Trained by the citizens of Torrance for the job.

NICKOLAS O. DRALE X

Camino Faculty to Hear Talk on Canada's Future

Louis Rene Beaudoin, former speaker of the House of Commons of Canada, will address the faculty of El Camino College on the future of Canada at 11 a.m., April 7.

Elected to the House of Commons in 1945, Beaudoin served as deputy chairman of the committees of the whole house from 1949 to 1951, deputy speaker from 1951 to 1953, and speaker from 1953 to 1957.

His activities in Commonwealth politics include his presidency of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association, chairmanship of the executive committee of the Canadian Branch of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association, and delegate of that association to conferences in New Zealand, Australia, Ceylon, and London.

Brownie Troop Celebrates First Anniversary

Brownie Troop 2461, sponsored by Moose Chapter 40, will celebrate its first anniversary Monday. Twenty-six members will receive year pins.

Recently the troop elected new officers for April. Laura Robertson is chairman, Jill Dosey is secretary, and Janis Croskrey is treasurer.

The Brownies' March activities included a skating party at the Torrance rink and birthday celebrations for Patsy Still and Debbie Vincent.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone FA 8-2345.

TORRANCE NEEDS . . .

GEORGE VICO

for
CITY COUNCIL

"Open and Independent Mind"

PLEDGE

For Our Youth—
Always a friend who believes that organized recreational activities make good citizens.

For the City Worker—
A square deal based on sound Civil Service rules.

VOTE TUESDAY APRIL 12th

For the Taxpayer—
Vigilance and constant study of any change in our tax structure.

For All the People—
My level best for a better Torrance.

(This Advertisement Paid for by the Citizens Committee to Elect George Vico to City Council)

NEW PRESIDENT—Mrs. George Moorehart, new head of the Harbor General Volunteers for Children signs in guest A. L. Thomas at recent installation ceremonies in Redondo Elks Hall.

Harbor Volunteers Seat Mrs. George Moorehart

Mrs. George Moorehart was seated as fourth president of the Volunteers for Children at Harbor General Hospital at installation ceremonies last Wednesday in the Elks Club, Redondo Beach.

Margarete Broan McAllister, chief of patient and volunteer services at the hospital, was installing officer.

A former elementary school teacher with the Torrance and Redondo Beach systems, Mrs. Moorehart has been a member of the volunteers for the past three years. Previously she has served as board member and chairman of children's parties.

Those taking office with Mrs. Moorehart were Mmes. Earl Chambers, first vice president; Robert Eatherly, second vice president; Gordon Shields, recording secretary; and Gene Earhart, corresponding secretary. Also Mmes. Walter Hatch, treasurer; John Blackman, one-year board member; and Homer Lindsey, two-year board member.

Guest speaker at the event was Dr. Emily Gates, assistant physician of pediatrics at Harbor and assistant professor of pediatrics at UCLA.

She spoke on the past accomplishments and future goals of the group.

Torrance Coed Is Member of Flight Auxiliary

Miss Carol Shinoda, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Y. Shinoda, 2716 Torrance Blvd., was recently welcomed into the Angel Flight Auxiliary of Arnold Air Force Base, an honorary group of the Air Force ROTC.

A freshman at the University of California, Carol is an English major and plans to teach on the elementary level upon graduation. Her campus activities include the Oski Dolls.

She is one of 22 new members chosen from a field of 115 coeds on the basis of appearance, grades, activities, and personality. The club, chartered last spring, now has a total membership of 35 girls.

Carol will act as an official hostess for the Berkeley campus corps of cadets and aid in social activities and flights.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone FA 8-2345.

- Latest Styles of Ladies' Frames
- Special Attention Given to Pensioners
- Experienced Child Eye Care

Scientific Eye Examination

- Contact Lenses
- 24-Hour Service
- Frame Repairs (on the spot)
- Our Own Laboratory for duplicating lenses (bring in your broken lens.)
- Convenient Credit

DR. A. F. KLINE, Optometrist
1408 CRAVENS AVENUE FA 8-1946
(Free Parking Across the Street)

Cash and Carry

Homo—Past. MILK Qt. 20¢

PALOS VERDES VIEW DAIRY
22845 Hawthorne Bl. FR 5-8615
Torrance's Drive-In Dairy

LITTLE BOW PUMP—AND HEARTS GO "THUMP!"

For Easter parading and later for dating—so innocent yet, with it all, calculating. No wonder you love living in flats. In glinting black patent; also white leather with matching handbags. And that's just part of the new fashion story at Kinney's. Sizes 4 to 10. Similar styles for little girls, sizes 8 1/2 to 4. All thumping values. $3.99

Kinney's
Fashion Footwear for Smart America
25928 S. Western Ave. 3 blocks South of Coast Hwy. 6100 S. Crenshaw Blvd. Gardens (Opposite El Camino College) Open Every Night 'til 9, Saturdays 'til 6, Closed Sundays